In sincere appreciation for patience,
understanding, and devoted guidance,
we, the senior class of 1954, lovingly dedicate this, The 1954 Gauntlet, to our friend and sponsor, Mrs. Ola Phillips.

FOREWORD

The Editorial and Business Staffs of the 1954年年刊 think that they have reached their goal in editing a book that will serve as a living record of the past year in Carthage High School. It is their hope that this book will recall all the memories that were a part of your school life.

Activities

Were a stranger to enter the halls of Carthage High School, he would see scenes of activity and interest such as these.

To those passing through the doors of Carthage High School for the last time, these scenes will long be remembered as a part of their happy school days.

BETA CLUB

Brantley Kelly
President

The National Beta Club is the honor club at Carthage High School. Each pupil must prove to be outstanding in character, leadership, and scholarship before he is invited to become a member. Upon acceptance of his invitation each pupil, when becoming a member of Beta, pledges, in presence of the student body, to maintain his high standard of scholarship.

Although Beta was started at C. H. S. back in 1934, it was allowed to lapse about two years later. It was reorganized in 1943 and has been an active and effective club at Carthage High ever since.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the senior class of Carthage High School, in the county of Moore, the state of North Carolina, being of an uncertain state of mind, do hereby declare this our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

To Mrs. Phillips, we wish to express our thanks for the interest and leadership she has shown us during the past years. To the rest of the faculty, we leave our deepest appreciation for their efforts toward increasing our wisdom.

ARTICLE II

To the buildings and buses we leave our deepest sympathy after the care we gave them for the past twelve years.

ARTICLE III

To the undergraduates: To the Junior Class we leave our privileges as Seniors. (if we had any).

To the Sophomores and Freshmen, we leave our hopes that before long they will occupy the position that we now occupy.

ARTICLE IV

Individual Bequests: During our years of school we have accumulated some well-known articles which we would like to bestow upon specific underclassmen. They are as follows:

Frank Thomas leaves his handwriting to anyone who can read it.

Dennis Shaver leaves his curly hair to Mr. Isaacs because Mr. Hill has an ample amount.

Junior McKinney doesn't leave anything because he needs it all.

Margie Barber leaves her long curly hair to Gail Kirby.

James Lee Alexander leaves his ability to Indian wrestle to Robbie Felton.

J. L. Boyte leaves his ability to play football without getting hurt to Pete Holder.

Eugene Pressley leaves his ability to get to school on time to June Frye.

Brantley Kelly leaves his ability to make "Most Athletic" in the Senior Class to Bobby Hugh McCaskill.

Becky Flinchum leaves her ability to write letters in study hall to all the girls who have boy friends in the Armed Forces.

Wilma Simpson and Shirley Poindexter leave school busses 5 and 10 to anybody who is crazy enough to want them.

Helen Rose Pressley leaves her big feet to Miss Meade.

Jimmy Burton leaves his ability to "go steady" to Wayne Flinchum.

Marian Bryant leaves her ability to be loyal to her "hubby-to-be" to Myrtle Black.

Sara Inman leaves her love for all school work to all future students.

"Susie" McArthur leaves her love for "bop jokes" and "cats" to Carlotta Maples.

Virginia Troxler leaves her friendliness to Glenda Penninger.

Becky Wallace leaves her ability to get along with boys to Johnnie Kelly.

Becky McDonald leaves her frankness and forwardness to Tommy Muse.

Shirley Chriscoe leaves her red hair to Sue Denny so she can save money on dye.

Pauline Morgan leaves her studious ability to Johnsie Flinchum.

Margaret Grimm leaves her position as Glee Club pianist to Burgwyn Fields.

Fred Brown leaves his "way with the women" to Johnnie Flinchum.

Charles Flinchum leaves his luck to the future President of the Student Body.

Barbara Brown leaves her deepest sympathy to the editor of the 1955 yearbook.

CLASS HISTORY

Crash! Wham! Forty freshmen made a crash landing into Carthage High on a clear September day in 1950. Mrs. E. L. Tilley was our homeroom teacher and under her supervision we enjoyed several parties, weiner roasts, an Easter play, a senior farewell tea, and a tour of our capitol city, Raliegh, in May.

September, 1951, we returned as Sophomores. Our school was almost as new to us as when we were freshmen, as our new principal, Mr. L. S. Isaacs and several new teachers joined us that year. Our homeroom teacher was Mr. W. B. Hill. This year almost half of our class was tapped into the Beta Club, and a good portion made the Monogram Club. We remember our class parties which were always pleasant occasions.

Mrs. Ola Phillips was our Junior homeroom teacher. Thirteen juniors from Fram Life joined us. After grand sales experience, hard work, and diligent planning we gave a banquet that will long be remembered. The theme was "Song of the Islands" with a Hawaiian setting. Under the starry sky we danced to the strains of the "Melody Masters" of Sanford. We realized that our time at Carthage High School was getting shorter for the commencement marshalls were chosen. They helped serve refreshments at the farewell tea honoring the seniors and their parents on class night.

We still can't believe it, but we are seniors, struggling, as usual, with Mrs. Phillips as our much loved homeroom teacher again. Our Senior play entitled "Give Me Credit" is to be presented on March 19, 1954. We will leave March 31, for four days, on our long dreamed of trip to Washington, D.C.

We have seen many changes take place during our four years. The new addition to the old building and our modern gym have been constructed. We are glad to have had the privilege of enjoying both of them. We are going out from our Alma Mater and as we look back . . . we have grateful memories of faculty members, friends, ball games, hard lessons, and club activities.

We will always love you Carthage High School FAREWELL
